Beat New Haven in Final Spurt

Laurel Hills Win at Basketball, 26 to 20—Home Five Came

With a Dash in the Last Period, Outplaying the Visitors in Fast Game—Captain Coyle the Star Scorer.

With a fine burst of speed in the second period, the Laurel Hills came from behind and won 26 to 20, in their basketball game Saturday night at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium against a fast five from the New Haven Y. M. C. A. The visitors had it on the locals in average height and weight, and were always in the game, looking dangerous up to the end, as they proved they were something in the game when they closed the first half in the lead, 11 to 8.

But between the periods, Captain Coyle and his men worked out a scheme of play that resulted in bombing the New Haven goal with shots from the very opening of the second period. Little Kent Ellis, the red headed mascot of the Laurel Hills, also played a part in the victory, as each one on the five took a lucky touch on his blazing foot before going back for the second period and the way they ran rings around New Haven for a few minutes showed the effects.

While the first period was fast, the crowd that watched the game from the galleries saw the real speed in the second canto. New Haven tied game once tying the score after the Laurel Hills had taken the lead, 12 to 11, and then catching up and passing the Laurel Hills when the Norwich boys again had a lead, 18 to 17. A pretty shot by a New Haven player put his team in the lead for a few moments, 19 to 18, but that was their dying effort and was quickly discounted by the great hand and eye of Captain Coyle, who shot two foul goals and two field goals in quick succession in the final minutes of the game.

When Referee Allyn L. Brown tossed the ball for the start of the game, Center McKerness for New Haven got the jump on Stanley, but it amounted to nothing as the two Laurel Hill guards, Townsend and Jackson, were on the watch all the way through for this and gobbled the ball when McKerness batted it off. Team play was a little lacking for the first few minutes, but the Laurel Hills were first to find their speed and Revere opened the scoring, closely followed by Coyle, with a field goal each. Coyle also registered on a free try, giving the Laurel Hills a lead, 5 to 0. Here the New Haven boys woke up and quickly made it 4 to 5 in their favor, tricking their opponents into allowing easy open shots for Cozzolino, McKerness and Smith. The Laurel Hills tied it on a foul goal by Revere.

Three teams missing and only Taftville and Jewett City represented at the Eastern Connecticut Baseball League meeting in Jewett City on Sunday afternoon was what faced President John B. Benoit when he called the meeting to order, and the further information was at hand that Wauregan, Moosup and Dayville, former members of the league, had folded off by themselves and were holding a meeting at the same time. Wauregan for the purpose of forming a new league in the northern section of the eastern part of Connecticut. Putnam, it was reported, was to make the fourth team in the new league.

The loss of Moosup and Dayville was not a surprise to the Eastern Connecticut league officers, since they had been President Benoit last week that they were going to withdraw, back Wauregan jumped the league without any warning. According to information that President Benoit received, it is Wauregan that is at the bottom of the secession from the Eastern Connecticut league ranks, and he is correspondingly sore, because they have been leading him along, while all the time according to the way he understands it, they have been dicker over the other scheme.

Attempt to Form Southern League.

With the league disrupted as it is at present, the officers decided that they would attempt to form a league, which will include Jewett City, Taftville, possibly the Centrals of Norwich, and teams in Baltic, Westerly and Stonington, and perhaps Willimantic. This would be a compact territory, which ought to have enough rivalry to support their teams in good shape. Economy in traveling expenses in the southern territory would be a favorable factor. Manager Calhoun of the Centrals is still undecided whether he could enter a team, the whole question depending upon the securing of grounds in Norwich. He has negotiations on foot which may settle the question this week.

The officers will get to work at once on the formation of the new league.

WARREN TEAM LEADS IN STAFFORD CANDLEPIN LEAGUE.

Independents a close Second—Two New Records in the Past Week.

(Special to the Bulletin.)

Stafford Springs, March 17.—With only two weeks more left for the Stafford Candlepin league the race is sure to be interesting, the enthusiasm waxing warmer each week. The Warren team is still in the lead by two pin margin over the Independents and Rhode Island's who are tied for second place.

There were two new records hung up the past week when Mullins rolled to single of 128 and the Independents 438 for the team string. All other positions remain unchanged.

RIVERS GIVES WHITE A TERRIBLE BEATING

California Lightweight Stops the Chicago Boy in 12 Rounds.

Mexican Joe Rivers, the Los Angeles lightweight, was an easy victor over Jack White of Chicago in the Vernon arena at Los Angeles, Cal., stopping the Chicagoan in the 12th round of a scheduled 20-round bout.

White's much vaunted cleverness was not in evidence, and his blows lacked force. In the entire twelve rounds White hardly once reached Rivers with a clean, telling blow, and all the time he was receiving terrific punishment.

White was knocked down repeatedly by lefts to the jaw or right crosses to the temple. The latter blows were the count of nine and half a dozen times the bell found him in such distress that the end seemed imminent.

Tigers Chew Up Wild Cats

The Tigers defeated the Wild Cats by 14 to 0 in the 12th round of a 20-round bout at 12, Saturday afternoon. The feature of the game was the battling rallies in the 6th, 8th and 11th innings, and the quick-witted Hille second baseman.

The bulls were nearly picked up by R. Fountain.

CLARENCE GEOR LIVES IN PA-CHAUG RIVER.

Clarence Gear Loses His Life in Pa-chaug River.

News of the death by drowning Sunday at Jewett City of Clarence Gear, rightfielder on the Norwich Free Academy baseball team last season, will be learned this morning with a sincere sense of loss on the part of his teammates, and by many others who knew him in this city.

Quiet and unassuming, he was an earnest and hard-working player, who more than once in the series of games proved his worth to the team by a bit of timely work in the field or at the bat. In the first league game of the season he played a leading part in a batting rally that sent three runs across the plate in the ninth inning, and won the game for the Academy from Stonington High, 6 to 4. Over the series he was a triple, a double and a single.

He was popular among his schoolmates and his untimely death at the age of 17 will be a saddest experience for the school and for the senior class of which he was a member.
